

DIRECTOR: OFFICE OF RESEARCH INTEGRITY

(Payclass 13;5 - Permanent)

OFFICE OF RESEARCH INTEGRITY

RESEARCH OFFICE

The University of Cape Town is a research-intensive university, which seeks to foster an environment to enable responsible conduct of research. The Research Office is a central research management support office. The Office of Research Integrity (ORI) is located within the Research Office.

We seek to attract an experienced, suitably qualified individual to the post of Director, Office of Research Integrity (ORI). The ideal candidate would be an experienced individual in research ethics and integrity. The ORI works collaboratively, with a wide range of stakeholders, including the Senate Ethics in Research Committee (EiRC), the Institutional Biosafety Committee (IBC) and the Senate Animal Ethics Committee (SAEC). The ideal candidate will demonstrate maturity, calmness under pressure, and the ability to provide principled, policy-driven guidance in challenging situations
